

Sorry we missed each other...

I was really looking forward to getting together with you, and am so sorry that something interfered with our plans. I hope it was nothing serious.

I am looking forward to getting you back onto my date book for your personalized pampering appointment. I know you're really busy, but you deserve to take a little time to slow down and pamper yourself!! Remember, it's only a 45 minute appointment, and you're going to leave feeling WONDERFUL!!

Please call my office at _____ so that we can fit you into the next available opening!

Love & belief,
